A CALL ON THE PEOPLE

By the Governor.

Isle of Man, that is to say.

For as much as, on the fifth day of December last, a Call was issued through this Island by the last Governor, offering a reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS

to any person who would first submit the complaint and testimony that would lead to the discovery and conviction of the person or the persons who did, on the night of Sunday the sixteenth of November last, knock down and destroy a great length of stone wall belonging to Illiam Fine Moore, gentleman, at Faaie Llewellyn, in Lezayre Parish and Maughold Parish ; taking care that the person who would submit the complaint had not been taking part himself in destroying the said wall ; And for as much as it is judged suitable to change the final part mentioned of the said Call ; I am hereby further offering the same Reward of

to any Person, whoever he be, that will first submit the aforementioned complaint and testimony; And further I am hereby announcing that the Minister for Home Affairs of the Realm will advise the Queen to promise to any one person that has taken part in destroying the said wall, and will first submit such a complaint and testimony as will lead to the conviction of all or any part (number) of the Persons who took part in knocking down and destroying the said wall.

A FREE PARDON
